

MAKE A LILY BOBTAIL DANDELION CHAIN

Lily Bobtail loves flowers!

Follow her step-by-step instructions to make a dandelion chain of your own:

1. Find some dandelions. You'll need at least 10 but can use as many as you like. Try to pick ones with thick stems.
2. Take the first dandelion, and use your thumbnail to make a small split about halfway down the stem. This can be fiddly, so ask a grown-up to help.
3. Thread the next dandelion through this hole. Then make a split in this dandelion's stem too and thread another dandelion through that.
4. Keep going until you have a really long dandelion chain.
5. Join the ends together to make a necklace or bracelet.
